

SECOND AT CIA — Lt. Gen. Robert E. Cushman Jr., 59, has been appointed Deputy Director of the CIA by President Nixon. Formerly commander of the 3d Marine Amphibious Force in Vietnam, he will become the CIA's No. 2 man behind Director Richard Heims. The St. Paul. Minn., native succeeds St. Paul, Minn., native succeeds retiring Vice Adm. Rufus L. Taylor.

Approved For Release 2001/08/28 CIA-RDP71B00364R000500240006-1

Deputy Director of C.I.A. Chosen

WASHINGTON, March 6 (UPI) — President Nixon announced today that a marine three-star general was being brought home from Vietnam to become Deputy Director of the Central Intelligence Agency.

Lieut. Gen. Robert E. Cushman Jr., now commander of the 3d Marine Amphibious Force in Victnam, will become No. 2 official of the C.I.A. under its director, Richard Helms. President Nixon asked Mr. Helms to stay on as chief.

stay on as chief.

General Cushman, 59 years old, will leave his Victnam post March 26 to take over his new job. The Pentagon announced that he would be succeeded in Vietnam by Licat. Gen. Herman Nickerson, 35, caw Director of Personnel and Depty Chief of Staff at Marine headquarters in Washington.

General Cushman, a native of St. Paul, Minn., will succeed Vice Adm. Rufus L. Taylor, who retired effective Feb. 1. Traditionally, the top two C.I.A. posts are split between the civilian and the military.

Following graduation from the United States Naval Academy, General Cushman

Associated Pools General Cushman

saw combat duty in the Pacific during World War II.
Beginning in February, 1957, he served four years as an assistant to livr. Nixon on national security affairs when Mr. Nixon was Vice President.

Admiral Paylor had served, as deputy director since October, 1966.

Nixon Concerned At Raids, But Shuns Public Comment,

BY MURIEL DOBBIN [Washington Bureau of The Sun]

Washington, March 6-President Nixon was "concerned" but silent today over reports of the continuing North Vietnamese offensive against South Vietnamese cities.

There was no public White House reaction to the latest rocket attack on Saigon or to the threat of Vice President Nguyen Ca Ky that South Vietnam may withdraw from the Paris peace talks if the latest Communist assult continues.

Response Delay Likely

Ronald Ziegler, presidential press secretary, said that the President was watching the situation in South Vietnam"with concern," but flatly refused to expand that statement.

Melvin R. Laird, Secretary of Defense, is now in Vietnam. It appears likely the "appropriate response," which Mr. Nixon said manding the 3d Marine Amphiwould be made to North Viet-bius Force in Vietnam, and durnounced until Mr. Laird makes to Vice President Nixon. his final recommendations to the White House.

formative on whether the president's phrase "major cities" indicated any change in the underof State, appeared at the white House to announce that Nathaniel Samuesl, managing partner of a New York domestic and standing reached between the international banking firm, has United States and North Vict-been nominated as deputy under nam last October 31.

CIA Deputy Named

press secretary, who refused to within the next 10 days. go any further.

retired last month.

General Cushman is now com- versity campus.

UPI (1957) LT. GEN. ROBERT CUSHMAN Named to CIA post nam if it continued the current ing the eisenhower administraoffensive, against major cities tion served four years as assistwill be neither decided nor an- ant for national security affairs

Rogers Names Aide

William R. Rogers, Secretary Mr. Ziegler was equaly unin-of State, appeared at the White secretary of state for economic affairs.

The warning regarding appro- Mr. Rogers also disclosed that priate response, sonded by the he plans to announce the nomi-President during his press con-ference earlier this week, was a affairs Monday, and added that "studied statement," said the he will hold a news conference

The President spent part of The President announced the the day attending the funeral of nomination of Marine Lt. Gen. his uncle, Dr. Ernest L. Nixon, Robert E. Cushing, Jr., as depu-in State College, Pa. Accompaty director of the Central Intel-nied by Mrs. Nixon and his secligence Agency, succeeding Vice reary, Miss Rose Mary Woods, Admiral Rufus L. Taylor who Mr. Nixon flew by helicopter to the funeral home near the uni-

Nixon Gives: Former Aide Top CIA Post

Washington, March 6 (News washington, wheren o (NEWS) Burcau)—President Nixon has, named Marine Corps Lt. Gen, Robert E. Cushman Jr., a former nide now serving in Victnam, to be deputy director of the Central Hughes Budenbach, a cryptologist

Intelligence Agency.
Cushman was nominated to succeed Vice Adm. Rufus L. Taylor, who retired Feb. 1, in the post for, who retired rep. 1, in the post that traditionally is filled by the many holding cameras. Two of the President's brothers, military.

Lt. Gen. Robert E. Cushman Jr. Worked for Nixon before

No. 2 man in the CIA April 1. He services. Nixon returned to the has been commanding general of the 3d Marine Amphibious Force in Vietnam since June, 1967, after serving as deputy commander of the same force.

Decorated in World War II

A native of St. Paul, Minn., Cushman was graduated from the Naval Academy at Annapolis and saw combat during World War II at Bougainville, Guam, and Iwo Jima. He was decorated with the Navy Cross and the Bronze Star and Legion of Merit, both with combat "V."

From 1957 to 1961, Cushman served as then Vice President Nixon's assistant for national security affairs. He was promoted to Brigadier General in 1958. He is married to the former Audrey Boyce, of Portsmoutth, Va., and they have a daughter, Mrs. Roberta Cauley, and a son, Robert Everton, 3d.

Presented Wamen's Awards

Hughes Budenbach, a cryptologist for the National Security Agency, and Mrs. Esther C. Lawton, assistant director of personnel for the Treasury Department.

The award is given for contributions to the efficiency of the federal career service, for influence on major government programs and for personal qualities of leadership and integrity.

This afternoon, Nixon flew by helicopter to State College, Pa, to attend funeral services for his uncle. Ernest L. Nixon, 85, a retired professor of agriculture at Pennsylvania State University. Accompanying the President were Mrs. Nixon and her secretary, Miss Rose Mary Woods, a long-time friend of the uncle.

Crowd Greets Nixon

Nixon was greeted by an applauding crowd of about 800 as his chopper touched down on the athletic field at Penn State, eight blocks from the funeral home where services were held.

When he arrived at the home, where he joined his uncle's widow and three grown children, the President was cheered again by several hundred students,

Edward and Royald, also attended